DEMANDS DENIED B. R. T. MEN QUIT

Sunday Crowds Are Transported in Motor Buses and Vehicles of Every Description

STRIKE UNEXPECTED

Approximately 8,000 Employees
Are Out in Protest Against Company's Attitude

New York, Aug. 29. — Brooklyn awoke this morning to find its transportation facilities completely tied up by an unexpected strike of approximately 8,000 employees of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company.

The strike has been pending several days and at a meeting last night the men voted to defer action on the strike for one week. Three hours later another meeting was held and the men voted to go on strike at 5 o'clock this morning.

Tonight all lines are virtually paralyzed. No surface cars were running and only a few trains were crawling over the elevated and subway lines.

Coney Island had a crowd of about 100,000 persons. They went in motor buses, moving vans, wagons and vehicles of every description. The buses charged a 25 to 30 cent fare to Coney Island, but charged from a dollar to three dollars for the return trip.

Temporary municipal business routes in all sections and steamboat services to Coney Island were being put in operation by the city tonight.

The strikers are members of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees of America. Recently they presented demands to Lindley M. Garrison, receiver of the B. R. T., asking for an wage increase of 25 per cent and up, an eight hour day and a closed shop. Receiver Garrison refused to grant the demand and referred the men to Federal Judge Mayer, legal custodian of the company. Judge Mayer sustained Receiver Garrison's refusal and would not confer with the Amalgamated committee, saying their demands were radical and excessive. The Amalgamated appealed to Mayor Hylan who attempted to arrange a conference between Judge Mayer, the Amalgamated's committee and B. R. T. officials. The conference never came about and the strike today resulted. The public service commission has called a meeting for tomorrow afternoon, which Patrick J. Shay and James Whelan, leaders of the Amalgamated, Louis Fridiger, attorney for the association, and Receiver Garrison have been asked to attend.

USE WEDGE TO SEVER POLISH ARMY FRONT

Russian Soviet Cavalry Meanwhile
Is Attempting a New Encircling Movement on Lemberg

Warsaw, Aug. 29. — The Russian Soviet forces are endeavoring to drive a wedge designed to sever the Polish front according to an official statement on the fighting operations issued just before last midnight.

Violent fighting is reported north of Belzic, to the north of Lemberg, where the Soviet cavalry of General Budenny is trying a new encircling movement against Lemberg. An advance Soviet detachment has reached Tysowice.

In the region of Bobriska, 20 miles southeast of Lemberg, the Poles have repulsed repeated Russian attacks intended as a drive against Lemberg. The Poles are counter attacking at Sarniki and have smashed several Soviet squadrons.

Further south General Pawlenko's Ukrainian army has forced the Dniester river in an outflanking movement against Soviet forces and is moving northward. There is weak contact with the enemy along the entire northern front from Grajevo to the northwest of Bialystok to Wlodawa on the Bug river.

The Poles apparently are planning no advances beyond the ethnographic frontier as mentioned in the American note, to which the Poles have replied. The front rests at present roughly along the lines laid down by the allies. There are indications that the Polish eastern line is being stabilized temporarily and the general staff has directed that there be no advance into districts where the Poles might not be welcomed by the population.

The military authorities announced today that the Poles along the front were resting and regrouping after pushing the Russian Soviet forces along the Bug river where they are prepared to make a stand if attacked. There are no indications, however, that the Poles are planning to continue their drive eastward. The moderate element is urging the government not to try to shove the line too far to the east.

Constantinople, Aug. 29. — Governor Wrangel, commander of the Bolshevik army in South Russia, has repulsed the Bolsheviks who crossed the Dnieper, a week ago, establishing bridgeheads at Kakhova and elsewhere. It was a move to cut off the retreat of General Wrangel's army which was to the northeast. The Bolsheviks also attacked from the northeast. This was a similar movement to that effect three weeks ago.

Copenhagen, Aug. 29. — Russian Bolshevik forces have recaptured Grodno says a Konoisberg dispatch to the Berlingske Tidende. The report adds that the Poles also have been forced to evacuate Bialystok.

WILL DENY COX MONEY CHARGES

Republican Leaders Prepare Mass of Documentary Evidence for Senate Inquiry

PLAN HARD FIGHT

Everything Will Be Made Public,
Says Chairman Hays, Republican Chairman

Chicago, Aug. 29. — Leaders in the Republican party spent today and tonight preparing a mass of documentary evidence to be presented to the senate campaign investigating committee when it reconvenes here tomorrow to look into methods used in conducting the presidential campaign.

"This evidence," they declared, "would prove untrue the charges of Governor Cox that 'a $50,000,000 corruption fund' was being raised by the Republicans and was to 'crucify Cox on his own cross.'"

Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican national committee, arrived today, and he and Fred W. Upham, treasurer of the committee, were in conference until late tonight. Under their supervision copies of the party's books and records were made, containing the names of every contributor to the campaign fund and the amount given. The party's campaign budget and the quotas assigned to districts. Another statement prepared is said to show the expenditures of the party in the campaign.

"It all will be given to the committee tomorrow," said Mr. Upham. "It will show that there is no corruption, no slush fund and that Governor Cox's statements are absolutely untrue."

Previous statements by Mr. Hays and Mr. Upham that the Republican party would not be content with defending itself from Governor Cox's charges, but would present evidence concerning the Democratic campaign fund, were reiterated.

"We will fight fire with fire," said Mr. Hays. "We will not only make public everything connected with our campaign, but we will force the Democrats to do the same. We warned them at the start that we would not take their aspersions lying down and we are going to back up that statement."

Senator Walter E. Edge, Republican of New Jersey, arrived unexpectedly today and will take part in the hearing. Senator Edge, a member of the senate committee, has been in Europe and has not attended any of the hearings since the convention. He called at Republican headquarters and was closeted with Mr. Hays and Mr. Upham a few minutes, but said that the meeting had no official significance.

Little Democratic Activity.

Senator Upham, Republican of Iowa, chairman of the committee, arrived late tonight, and Senator Pomeren, Democrat of Ohio and several other members are expected early tomorrow.

Senator Miles Poindexter of Washington and many other Republican leaders either are here or expected.

On the Democratic side there was little activity. There was no one officially authorized to speak for them in connection with the hearing. William Marsh, treasurer of the Democratic national committee, and George White, chairman, are expected tomorrow.

So far as could be learned, no word had been received from Governor Cox as to any evidence he might send, or saying whether he expected to attend. He was invited to do so a week ago, but replied he felt his presence should not be demanded.

At Republican headquarters it was said that the party leaders probably would not insist that Governor Cox be forced to attend, but that every effort would be made to obtain all evidence he might have. It was indicated that the Republicans might ask the committee to go to Governor Cox if it was felt that a subpoena would interfere with his campaign plans or tend to humiliate him.

False Statements Charged.

Mr. Hays and Mr. Upham saw no one throughout the day but party leaders except a 30 minute interview given newspapermen by the national committee chairman in which he issued a formal statement again denying Governor Cox's charges.

"Candidate Cox has charged that millions have been paid to the Republican national committee by sinister influences to buy the presidency," said the statement. "Yesterday he is reported to have said in New York that many men are making contributions to the Republican campaign fund for the purpose of using the bayonet to settle industrial disputes. Candidate Cox will have to prove these charges, but this he cannot do because they are absolutely false. His declarations are an insult to thousands of citizens adding up with small contributions and we will publicly prove them false by making public the names of every contributor, the amount and the purpose for which it is sent."

"Incidentally Candidate Cox will have to explain the source of his funds," collected by his own national committee and by the states outside his national committee for his benefit."

While neither Mr. Hays or Mr. Up-

RUSSIANS ACCEPT POLES' PROPOSALS

Transfer of Peace Negotiations from Minsk to Riga Meets with Favor

Warsaw, Aug. 29. — The Russian Soviet government has accepted the Polish proposal for transfer of the Russo-Polish peace negotiations from Minsk to Riga, Latvia, it was announced in a Moscow wireless message to the Polish government received early today.

Definite indications reached Warsaw Saturday that but little progress had been made at the Minsk conference and that the Poles and Soviet representatives had agreed to a shift of the negotiations in the hope of bettering conditions generally.

A wireless message from Minsk complains further about the treatment suffered by the Polish delegates. The message asserts that the commander of the western Soviet army placarded Minsk with posters labeling the Poles as spies and warning the population against associating with them. The message adds that the commander destroyed the Poles' wireless antennae, hindering communication with Warsaw.

Minsk, Russia, Aug. 22. — M. Domski, the Polish under secretary for foreign affairs, has prepared a protest which is to be presented to the peace conference tomorrow, threatening that the Poles will withdraw immediately from the deliberations unless the Soviet government ceases its interference with the Polish wireless and otherwise obstructing the work of the Polish delegation.

The note of M. Domski will protest against the Soviet government's charge of yesterday that the Poles are causing the delay for which the Soviet delegates are blamed.

CROSS PRUSSIAN FRONTIER

Paris, Aug. 29. — Forty thousand Bolsheviks already have crossed the East Prussian frontier and more are making their way across the border, according to the foreign ministry. It adds that all the Bolsheviks are being interned under the directions of allied officers.

BOLSHEVISTS CAPTURE FORT

London, Aug. 30. — Bolshevik forces have captured a fort a mile and a half from Brest-Litovsk, says a dispatch to the Daily Herald from Minsk, dated Saturday. The message declares that the Reds are gathering strength for a new offensive.

hām—would anticipate testimony by saying exactly what figures would be presented. It was generally understood that the Republican campaign budget which it was said would be presented to the committee would total $3,762,000. Concerning the list of quotas it was said that it "was entirely different from the list Governor Cox used in his Pittsburgh speech" and that evidence concerning it would be introduced to show that more than 30,000 persons had contributed to the fund which now totals somewhat more than a million dollars.

Britton Is Subpoenaed.

Congressman Fred A. Britton of Illinois has been subpoenaed in connection with his charges that money appropriated by Great Britain for entertainment at the Washington embassy had "found its way to the Democratic National committee" and the investigation committee also has several other matters on its docket. The senatorial primaries in Oklahoma in which Senator Gore was defeated and the pre-convention campaign in Kansas are among them.

Representative James W. Good, Republican of Iowa, tonight issued a statement charging that Democratic office holders had violated the corrupt practices act by levying political assessments on federal employees and saying that he would "welcome an opportunity" to appear before the investigation committee in support of his statement.

He specifically charged that F. T. Meredith, Secretary of Agriculture, and Wilbur Marsh, became directors of an Iowa club recently organized solely to obtain money from federal employees in secret.

Earlier in the day Governor Cox attended services at St. Paul's Episcopal church in Brooklyn. From the home of former representative John J. Fitzgerald, where he had spent the previous night, the governor motored up to the church with George White and his host.

Reverend Henry Glaeser, opened his sermon, by announcing that he was glad "to welcome the governor of Ohio into his congregation for the day." He made no further reference to politics.

Immediately on returning from his tour of the hospital, Governor Cox received Rabbi Wise and after a short conference dined in his apartment with William G. McArdoo and Thomas L. Chadbourne of New York.

Later the governor spent two hours conferring on the League of Nations with Professor John S. Bassett, of Smith's college, John F. Moore, Boston, D. H. Miller, former legal adviser to the American peace commission, and George Foster Peabody, all of whom are said to be authorities on international law.

He also received Representative Scott Ferris and James McClintock, of Oklahoma, and Thomas B. Love, Democratic national committeeman from Texas.

LAUD HARDING LEAGUE PLANS

Flood of Congratulatory Telegrams Pours into Republican Headquarters at Marion

OTHER ISSUES NOW

Nominee Will Consider Western Land Problem and Industrial Matters During the Week

Marion, O., Aug. 29. — Having put before the country his plan for a new association of nations, Senator Harding expects to turn his attention to other issues of the campaign in his speeches of the next two weeks with only an occasional reference to the league fight.

The next important problem on which he will publicly outline his views is the reclamation of western lands. He will speak on that subject Tuesday to a group of Republican governors and nominees for governor from western states, who will be central figures in "Governor's Day" of the front porch calendar.

To Detail Labor Platform.

On Monday of the following week, the nominee's labor platform is to be set forth in detail in a speech to a Labor day gathering here and two days later he will discuss agricultural issues at the Minnesota State fair.

Later in the campaign Senator Harding intends to bring the question of industrial reconstruction into prominence, but the occasion for that address has not yet been selected. He is making a study of after war industrial conditions and is understood to feel that the field offers much acceptable campaign material. It is expected also that he will devote a speech to soldier compensation among a number of other subjects to be covered as the campaign develops.

He will speak here next Saturday to state chairmen of the Republican ways and means committee entrusted with collection of campaign funds, but it is not expected he will touch directly on the charges of an excessive campaign fund made by Governor Cox.

He has indicated that he expects adequate reply to be made by National Chairman Hays and National Treasurer Upham.

League Fight Not Abandoned.

While he is devoting the major portion of his speeches to other subjects, however, the senator will not lose sight of the League issue. Several interesting angles of that fight are yet to be developed and as the campaign proceeds the candidate probably will touch on it frequently in public utterances.

It has been intimated here that one feature of the Republican program for a world tribunal would devolve upon the work now being done abroad by Elihu Root, who, together with European statesmen, is attempting to establish the international court provided for in the League of Nations covenant. Mr. Root is expected to return to this country shortly and will confer soon after his arrival with Senator Harding.

Meantime the nominee's conferences with other public men interested in foreign affairs will continue. Senator Knox of Pennsylvania, a former Republican secretary of state and an irreconcilable opponent of the Versailles treaty, is one of those expected here during the coming week to talk over the association of nations plan.

Harding headquarters made public today a batch of telegrams of congratulation on Senator Harding's foreign relations speech of yesterday. Among them was one from Senator Brandegee of Connecticut, one of the senate group of irreconcilables, saying:

"Glory, Hallelujah, God reigns and the government of Washington still lives."

THOMPSON "DRY" CANDIDATE

Senator Publicly Accepts Party's Designation as Its gubernatorial Choice.

Utica, Aug. 29. — State Senator George F. Thompson, who is conducting a campaign for the Republican nomination for Governor, tonight announced he would accept designation by the prohibition party as its candidate for the office. Senator Thompson said:

"I will accept the designation of the prohibition party and the issue involved. The situation now offered to Republicans who demanded a referendum to the people on the rum question an opportunity to be submitted. Governor Smith will be nominated by the Democrats. His record guarantees he will stand without evasion on his side of the question."

"Judge Miller stands for nothing, and refuses to take a side on this or any other issue in which the people are interested. I stand for enforcement of the constitution, against bootlegging and unconstitutional suppression of traffic and against the saloon, or the substitution of anything under any other name to take its place. Any fair-minded Republican will favor submitting this square cut issue to the people and my nomination on the Republican ticket so that the issues may be clearly drawn."

WOUNDED WAR VETS ARE GREETED BY COX

Political Allies Chafe While Democratic Nominee Chats with Heroes of France

New York, Aug. 29. — More than 350 wounded war veterans shook hands here today with Governor Cox who had made a dozen or more hospital visits wait two hours at his hotel while he visited the Polytechnic hospital.

The second day of the Democratic presidential candidate's stay here had been scheduled for him far in advance and some of Governor Cox's admirers counseled against taking so much time away from political conferences.

"Let them wait," the governor said, announcing his intention of visiting every one of the soldiers in the hospital. "If it will cheer them to meet me, they won't be disappointed."

And he made good his promise. Going from ward to ward, he chatted a moment with each of the invalids, who, dressed in pajamas and bath robes and displaying bandages and crutches, included men in every state of convalescence.

"On September 2, I start for my western front," he told one group. "What I do there will be in emulation of what you did on the western front in France—that is, clean them up."

He paused long before the bed of Clyde R. Shryer, of Syracuse, N. Y., who exhibited a photograph of Governor Cox which he said had hung on his wall since the San Francisco convention.

"I am prouder of that than of anything I know of," the governor declared and shaking Shryer's hand and thanking him for the compliment.

On returning to his hotel the candidate found many Democratic leaders waiting to confer with him. He received several, including Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, who wished personally to announce his intention of taking the stump for the Democratic ticket.

NEW WORLD RECORD
ROWED BY YANKEES

Eight-Oared Crew Defeats British Team in 2,000 Meters Event

Brussels, Aug. 29. — American oarsmen proved their superiority in the Olympic regatta, the finals of which were rowed today, winning three out of four events, and second place in the fourth. Greatest interest centered in the single scull and the 2,000 meters event for eight-oared shells.

Jack Kelley of Philadelphia, single scull champion of the United States, crossed the finish line a full length ahead of J. Berestford Jr., the British representative and winner of the Diamond scull event at the Henley regatta, after a hard race.

Both men were exhausted at the end, but Berestford was in worse shape than the American.

The American eight-oared crew, in defeating the British crew, covered the distance in 6 minutes, 5 seconds, a new world's record for the 2,000 meters. The six-year veteran combination of Switzerland proved too strong for the Americans in the four-oared event, the Swiss winning by three lengths, with the Americans a length and a half ahead of the Norwegian crew.

Colombes, France, Aug. 29. — The United States again today carried away first honors in a monster athletic meet organized by the Union of Sporting Federations of France. The event had been widely advertised as "a revenge for the Antwerp-Olympic games."

The American teams scored a total of 134 points, Sweden 128 and France 73.

Notwithstanding the cool and disagreeable weather, some 25,000 persons gathered in the stadium to watch the athletes. A strong wind blowing across the field made fast time by the distance runners impossible.

Gaston Vidal, deputy president of the Union of Sporting Federations, said today that France would make a strong bid for the Olympic games of 1924.

Antwerp, Aug. 29. — The American swimming team won the final of the 500 meter swimming relay race here today, creating a new Olympic record of 19 minutes, 4-25 seconds.

The final heat of the 400 meter relay Olympic swimming race for women was won by the American team. The Americans also hung up a new Olympic record for this event.

C. Pinkston, of San Francisco, won the final of the fancy diving contest.

MORE MURDER WITNESSES.

Hackensack, N. J., Aug. 29. — Two more men, Joseph Garafola, chauffeur, and George Harris, both of the Bronx, were held without bail today as material witnesses in the police investigation of the death of Mrs. Blanche Schultz, whose body was found in the Grant woods last Wednesday with marks of violence.

Frank Shultz, husband of the dead woman and F. Jukner, his friend, were detained by the authorities last week and still are in jail.

ELEVEN MEN DIE IN IRISH RIOTS

Fighting in Belfast Saturday Night
Resulted Also in Heavy
Property Losses

CITY IS NOW QUIET

Machine Gun Fire Constantly Renders Hideous the Work of Fire Brigades

Belfast, Aug. 29. — Eleven men dead is the toll of Saturday's fighting in Belfast. In addition to the six men killed during the height of the battle, five of the wounded died today.

A feature of the rioting was the extent of the destruction of property. The fire brigade had an especially hard time during the night in fighting the flames. Their work was rendered hideous by the constant rattle of machine guns. The Sinn Feiners were in strong force and appeared to be well supplied with arms and ammunition.

The greatest bitterness was displayed during the fighting. There was a great amount of wrecking of houses and the burning of furniture, both indoors and on the street. The yells of the mob, and the shrieks of women and children and the groans of the injured were audible throughout the fighting. When the rioting was at its worst, women could be seen, clad in their night attire, rushing from their homes, attempting to lead their families from the danger zone.

The excitement was intense until 10 o'clock Sunday morning. Isolated firing was to be heard throughout the forenoon and the people were apprehensive lest there should be a renewal of the disorder at nightfall.

Three attempts were made tonight to burn the Independent Labor party hall. The last attempt resulted in serious damage to the building. The police tonight charged crowds in the Crumlin road with their bayonets, but order was not restored until the troops arrived.

It is reported that an armored car fired on a crowd around a bonfire and that a boy was shot through the breast. Two constables are declared to have been sent to hospitals as a result of their injuries.

Night of Horrors.

Belfast, Ireland, Aug. 29. — Belfast Saturday night was the worst since what is popularly known as the battles of Keshmire Road. Six persons were killed and nearly 40 wounded, many of them seriously. All the killed were young men, the victims of gun-shot wounds.

Ballymacarrett, a suburb of Belfast, responded to the Lord Mayor's appeal and remained fairly quiet, but Saturday afternoon Cullinstown road, abutting Grosvenor road, the Unionist district, became the storm center. Later in the evening the battle shifted to the northern part of the city by way of Townsend street, a long thoroughfare extending from the falls to Old Lodge road. The latter and the upper parts of Crumlin and Old Park roads were the center of the fiercest fighting of the whole week, especially the "Narrow Bone" the nickname of the Nationalist enclave at the top of Old Park road.

Sinn Feiners in this neighborhood made an organized offensive on Unionists in Crumlin road, smashing windows and firing into houses. Failure by the police to hold them back led to the summoning of military aid. For several hours armored cars were in action, together with squads of police and soldiers, and volleys were poured into the crowd. After two hours of stiff fighting the Sinn Feiners were driven back into their own quarters, but sniping into the Unionist's quarters continued far into Sunday morning.

RELEAF AGAIN QUIET

Belfast, Aug. 30. — Quiet prevailed in Belfast at midnight last night, furnishing a strong contrast to Saturday night's fighting.

MACSWINEY'S CONDITION BAD

Death of Lord Mayor of Cork, on Hum-

of Terrence Macswiney, Lord Mayor of Cork, who is in Brixton jail on hunger strike, was stated officials to be virtually unchanged today. His sister, who visited him this morning, said he passed a restless night and was sinking and the doctors thought he might die at any moment.

Mayor Macswiney still was conscious and told her.

"I am convinced I will not be released. It will be better for my country if I am not."

London, Aug. 29. — Mayor Macswiney's condition was decidedly worse tonight; his pulse was very low. The mayor's brother, after a visit reported that the prisoner collapsed during the afternoon and died.

CARDINAL ANETIE DIES.

Paris, Aug. 29. — Cardinal Leon Adolphe Amette, arch bishop of Paris, died suddenly at 8 o'clock this morning at Antony, near Paris, where he was enjoying a vacation. The body was brought to his Paris residence this afternoon.

ACCEPT POLISH PROPOSAL RUSSIAN ARMY "DESTROYED"

Head of Russian Delegation in London
Characterizes Such Reports as Fables.

London, Aug. 29. — A long statement was issued today by M. Kamenef, head of the Russian delegation now in London, concerning the military situation on the Russo-Polish front and the peace negotiations of Minsk. Kamenef describes as "fables" reports that the Poles have virtually destroyed the Russian army and asserts that the Russians are now regrouping and preparing for a new offensive. Kamenef says that the campaign of General Wrangel, the anti-Bolshevik commander in South Russia, is nearing an end. Wrangel is described as being in a critical situation and retreating.

The statement declares that M. Domski, the Polish under secretary for foreign affairs, and other Polish delegates have gone to Brest-Litovsk for a conference with members of the Polish government and that this will delay the peace negotiations at least a week.

TROOPS WILL GUARD MINE STRIKE ZONES

Situation Throughout Mingo County, West Virginia, Was Quiet
Throughout Sunday

Williamson, W. Va., Aug. 29. — A battalion of United States infantry, numbering between 400 and 500, under command of Colonel Burkhardt, arrived this morning from Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, Ohio.

A detachment of soldiers will be stationed at each mine in the strike zone from Kermans to Delcime, a distance of 50 miles. It was announced.

Colonel Burkhardt was met by T. M. Davis, adjutant general of West Virginia, representing Governor Cornwell, who yesterday asked the government for troops because of disorder in connection with the coal strike in the Mingo field during the summer. They visited a number of points in the district and mapped out distribution of the troops. Of the 63 mines in the district, 20 or more have remained open during the strike, according to operators.

The situation throughout Mingo county was reported quiet today. Martial law has not been proclaimed, nor will it be, Colonel Burkhardt said, until occasion for such action arises.

The residents of Mattewan and Williamson are said to have been relieved considerably by the arrival of the United States troops owing to the frequent disturbances in the region during the strike. Their presence was welcomed particularly according to local authorities, in view of the approach of the trials of 24 men indicted for the killing at Mattewan, May 19, of seven detectives, the mayor of the town and two other men in a battle between miners, citizens and private detectives.

The trials are set for the term of court here beginning September 5. Since the grand jury investigation of the Mattewan battle, a number of witnesses in the case have received letters threatening their lives and property, according to Governor Cornwell last night.

Charleston, W. Va., Aug. 29. — Unofficial information received here tonight from Williamson county seat of Mingo county, was to the effect that certain detachments of United States troops had reached Williamson. Details are lacking.

POPE BENEDICT POSES FOR MOVING PICTURES

Rome, Italy, Aug. 29. — For the first time in history, a Pope has posed for moving pictures. Not only was permission granted for the filming of scenes in the Lourdes chapel grounds, but Pope Benedict today took a leading part, posing first with various groups and then for "close ups" and expressing much amusement at the persistence of the American photographers who went within four feet of the Pontiff.

This occurred after the Pope had celebrated mass for the visiting American Knights of Columbus in the open Vatican garden and had given a friendly communion to each Knight. Vatican officials were amazed that the Pope appeared in the scene for about 20 minutes and which proved the most complete picture ever taken of Vatican ceremonies.

When the Vatican officials objected, to the Pope being photographed, he said: "Let the Americans have what they want."

CUBS PLAY GREAT BALL

BUT NEVERTHELESS LOSE GAMES TO GROTON AND SCHENECTADY.

Score of Both Battles Is 1 to 0, Game at Groton Going 12 Innings, a Pitchers' Battle Between Davis and Whitman.

In two "real" baseball games over the week-end, the Oneonta Cubs suffered defeat by the same score, 1 to 0. Both games were similar in character, being largely pitchers' battles, and were fought hard all the way through.

On Saturday, the Cubs went to Groton for the first time this season, and everybody in that place who saw the game said they would be mad if the Cubs didn't come again, such a fast game it was that they put on. It is doubtful whether the teams will meet again this season, however, but Manager Weidman will do his best to arrange for it if possible. Saturday's game went twelve innings before it was decided.

Davis was on the mound for Oneonta and to say that he pitched a wonderful game is putting it mildly. He allowed his opponents, the Corona Typewriter company's team, but four hits and in the seventh inning, with three men on bases and two out.

CUBS PLAY GREAT BALL

BUT NEVERTHELESS LOSE GAMES TO GROTON AND SCHENECTADY.

Score of Both Battles Is 1 to 0, Game at Groton Going 12 Innings, a Pitchers' Battle Between Davis and Whitman.

In two "real" baseball games over the week-end, the Oneonta Cubs suffered defeat by the same score, 1 to 0. Both games were similar in character, being largely pitchers' battles, and were fought hard all the way through.

On Saturday, the Cubs went to Groton for the first time this season, and everybody in that place who saw the game said they would be mad if the Cubs didn't come again, such a fast game it was that they put on. It is doubtful whether the teams will meet again this season, however, but Manager Weidman will do his best to arrange for it if possible. Saturday's game went twelve innings before it was decided.

Davis was on the mound for Oneonta and to say that he pitched a wonderful game is putting it mildly. He allowed his opponents, the Corona Typewriter company's team, but four hits and in the seventh inning, with three men on bases and two out.

GIVEN KNOCK-OUT DROPS.

Paul Jobe of 165 Main Street Found in Serious Condition in Park.

Paul Jobe of 165 Main street was found asleep in Brown park at about 6 o'clock Saturday morning by men on their way to work and when a number had gathered the commotion caused him to awaken. When he was first aroused he seemed unable to give an account of himself and the ambulance was called and he was taken to the Fox hospital for treatment. Dr. Marc attended him and it was first thought that he was suffering from over indulgence as he seemed to be in a very excited state and claimed to have been robbed of his money. Quietening positions were administered and late in the afternoon he awoke quite rational and was permitted to leave the hospital. He returned to his home.

While he admitted to his friends having returned to his home at an early hour Saturday morning, he is positive that he was in good condition at the time. Shortly after reaching his room he states an acquaintance at a former place of residence came to the door and, after conversing with him for a time, offered him some candy, which he ate. Shortly after, he averts, he lost consciousness and declares he remembers nothing that happened until he awoke at the hospital Saturday afternoon. He states that about $30 in money was taken from his clothing after he ate the candy. During his frenzy of the early morning he repeatedly declared that he had been robbed of several hundred dollars.

He insists that he knows the fellow who gave him the doped candy and that he now recalls that the fellow had an old grudge against him. For the present at least he does not desire to disclose his identity. The case is an unusual one and, while the report current that he was intoxicated will not down, his story is vouched for by acquaintances.

Recruiting Truck in Oneonta.

An army recruiting truck in charge of Sergeant William Lawson and Private first class, Thomas A. White and Paul L. Best, who have been out of headquarters in Albany since June 9th, covering the Hudson valley and other parts of New York state, arrived in Oneonta Saturday from Elmira, where they had been spending a week securing recruits. They will remain in Oneonta during this week for the same purpose, working in cooperation with the local Army recruiting officer.

The truck carries captured German munitions of war and American ordnance, both of which will be on display during the week at a time and place later to be decided. Those in charge report a very successful trip and expect to secure a number of recruits in Oneonta for the army, which offers many attractive opportunities for young men, especially along the line of vocational training.

Bakewell Discharged.

Bakewell, the Russian, who was arrested charged with assault of the six-year-old child, Nick Roscovitch, the latter part of June, and who was held for trial on Friday, August 26th, was given a discharge on account of insufficient evidence.

ROLLING STOCK ISSUES FAVORITES

Promising Crop Prospects and Increased Rate Scales Are Encouraging Factors

New York, Aug. 29.—Aside from a broader inquiry, mainly at higher prices, the stock market this week differed very slightly from preceding periods of the pathetic mid-summer season.

Foreign developments, as measured by the Russo-Polish situation, were more hopeful, but improvement in that quarter found only passing expression in the international exchange market which again lagged under the increasing weight of remittances for food stuff and cotton.

More promising crop prospects and higher freight and passenger rates gave a decided impetus to the demand for transportation stocks. These securities together with numerous low priced railroad bonds, were almost the only issues to stand out in the week's hesitant movement.

Trade reports and various advices continued to stress on certain trend in many lines of manufacture. Conflicting rumors were current regarding the status of the automobile industry, the same reports being equally applicable to the steel and copper markets.

White business authorities aver that the prices resulting from post bellum conditions have been successfully overcome, the federal reserve board and conservative banking interests, also most as a whole evince no disposition to change their long sustained policy of credit repression.

Approach of new financial interests, the July trade reports offered food for reflection in the heavy falling off of merchandise exports. Excess over imports as compared with the corresponding months of 1919, showed a decline of almost 50 per cent.

DELIGHTFUL DANISH PICNIC

TWO HUNDRED FIFTY ATTRACTED TO ONEONTA OUTING

Natives of Denmark and Their Descendants Heartily Enjoy Event—Speeches in Language of Fatherland by Prominent Danish-Americans of New York State.

One of the largest and most delightful and interesting picnics this summer at Neahwa park was that of the Danes of New York state, who held their second annual reunion there on Saturday. There are in the counties of Otsego and Delaware about forty families of Danes, practically all of them thirty farmers who have settled here, most of them after trying out the farming sections of the middle west. Of these colonies, practically every one was represented, as well as others from Chenango, Broome and Montgomery, and that the Danes of New York are a prosperous people is indicated by the fact that of the various vehicles bringing the visitors to Oneonta, no less than 30 were automobiles.

The members of the association assembled at about 10 o'clock in the morning, and after an hour or so spent in friendly greetings and in getting acquainted, the meeting was called to order by Chr. Christensen of Hartwick, chairman of the picnic committee, who gave a few cordial words of greeting. Afterwards the American and Danish national songs were sung with equal fervor, and Mr. Christensen introduced Viggo C. Eberlin of New York, who is manager of the Danish section, information service of the American Red Cross, who gave an interesting talk on "What the Danes Are Contributing to American Civilization." In particular he urged on the Danes present and their descendants that they should remember what they owe to Denmark and to the culture from which they sprang, and that they should help to transplant to the fertile soil of the United States whatever has made the native country what it is. In particular he referred to the cooperative system for the marketing of farm products, and the purchase of whatever they need, which is being taken up also by the Danes in America. In this connection he referred to the superior quality of Danish butter and to the little known fact that, small as the kingdom is, it exports more butter than any other country in the world, and almost as much meat as the United States. During the previous week, he stated, no less than 4,000,000 pounds of butter came in one shipment to New York city. All exports are under government control, and only what is good can leave the country.

As division chief of the Red Cross Dr. Eberlin is, among other things, assisting all Danish emigrants in securing the legal rights which on account of ignorance of the language they might not otherwise secure. In conclusion he urged all in attendance to become members of the Red Cross.

Adjournment was taken at noon for the picnic dinner, which was served on tables in the pavilion, and at which more than 250 according to a careful estimate were seated. In addition to the viands brought by the members, the dinner was supplemented by excellent sandwiches, pies, ice cream, cake, coffee and lemonade served by the Dady lunch, and for which there was steady demand during the day.

In the afternoon the program began with the singing of patriotic and folk songs, in which all joined with a will and which no doubt recalled to many their early days in Denmark—a country to which the world is indebted for that greatest of all writers of children's stories, Hans Christian Andersen. The first afternoon speaker was Dr. Emil Offner, of New York, editor of the Nordlyst, the only Danish-American newspaper in the east, who gave an interesting account of a recent trip around the world, and of his meetings with Danish dairymen in Australia, New Zealand and Canada as well as in the United States. One interesting fact to which he called attention was that the country about Oneonta is much like Denmark and that the Neahwa park, with its low-lying meadows and rounded hills on either side might easily be taken for a section cut out of many parts of his native land. To this he attributed the fact that so many Danes have settled in Otsego, and that doubtless many more will follow. The third speaker was John D. Frederiksen of Little Falls, who spoke with that knowledge which comes from 42 years residence on "The Danish Farmer in America." Mr. Frederiksen is the manager of the Ch. Hansen laboratory at Little Falls, manufacturers of butter and cheese color, rennet extract and in particular of Junket, which is a household word in practically every American kitchen. His address was interesting and helpful, and no doubt was an inspiration to his hearers to be able better Danes and better Americans. Afterwards there were brief talks by members of the association, all discussing problems and experiences of the Dane in America.

Though the threatened rain which late in the afternoon became reality, hurried somewhat the later part of the program, the day throughout was very pleasant and profitable, and on departure the hope was generally expressed that this was the first of many similar annual events in Oneonta.

In addition to the speakers above named, there was present Prof. J. Moldenhauer of the Department of Agriculture at Albany, who has charge for the state of Scandinavian settlements on farms and who renewed old acquaintances with many of those present.

Removed to Colliers.

Leland W. Seeger, whose illness was noted in The Star of Saturday, was on that day removed from 57 Elm street to the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Smith, at Colliers. Mr. Seeger, who is a partner of Mr. Smith in the store at Colliers, had some time ago disposed of his property in Oneonta and was making preparations to move to the former place when he was taken ill. His condition being more favorable on Saturday, he was taken to his new home. He stood the journey well and his condition appeared slightly better yesterday.

FREIGHTS AND PRICES.

The recent quite generally-made and frequently-accepted statement that the advance in freight rates which went into effect last week would greatly increase the cost of goods to the consumer is refuted in a recent issue of American Railroads, which after a careful summary and explanation of former and present rates says that there will be no excuse whatever for large advances in retail prices to the consumer.

"Freight rates," it says, "are a small part of the cost of living, and the increase in those rates is a still smaller one." For example, the magazine says that the increase in the freight charges on a suit of men's clothing from Baltimore to Philadelphia, or on a pair of shoes from Boston to Philadelphia, will be 6 mills, a sum which should hardly be apparent in the selling price. The increase from Minneapolis to Philadelphia—all these estimates are based on Philadelphia—on a barrel of flour is 33 cents, 10.8 cents on a tub of butter from Chicago, 34.2 cents on a crate of oranges from Florida, 25.6 cents on a barrel of apples from Penn. Yarn, about a quarter of a cent on canned goods generally from eastern canneries, 4.4 mills on beef in less than carload lots from Chicago and 2.7 mills in car lots. Rice now pays 48 1/2 cents a hundred pounds from New Orleans to Philadelphia, which is an increase of one and a fifth mills on a pound.

Assuming that these figures are correct, as doubtless they are, the increase to the consumer should not be large, and it is not likely that in many instances the seller, as for example with shoes and clothing, will add anything to his selling price. This would not of course be true with flour, apples, potatoes or other bulky commodities brought long distances, but even in these cases the figure can be pretty definitely worked out and the purchaser can know if he is paying more than he should. Certainly a fraction of a cent advance in freight rates should not be multiplied tenfold under cover of the additional freight, and it will not be by the upright merchant anywhere.

SUPERINTENDENT MAKES CALL.

Drops in at Roundhouse at 3 A. M. Attired in Blue Jumpers.

The other morning at 3 o'clock an apparent stranger dropped in at the D. & H. roundhouse in the yards here. He was attired in blue denim, his cap was pulled well down over his eyes, and he bore every indication of having just come in from perhaps a free ride from Carbondale. He was given little attention and when he quietly inquired for a piece of paper, one of the men rather indifferently replied that he guessed there was some wrapping paper upstairs and, after a moment's delay, went and brought a piece which he handed the stranger. The latter proceeded to take off his denim garments, and, doing them up carefully, pulled a D. & H. pencil from a vest pocket and wrote upon the outside "G. S. Edmonds, S. M. P. Albany." He then requested the young man to forward the package to Albany.

When the chap's eyes fell upon the name, he nearly lost his breath and his associates are still having a laugh at his expense, telling how profuse he was in assuring the early morning caller that his instructions would be followed carefully.

Along with this story railroad men are telling many similar incidents occurring when Mr. Edmonds was master mechanic of the local shops. He often turned up at unexpected places and at unreasonable hours, learning for himself some things he wished to ascertain. His friends here recall that even when out for a short motor ride of an evening, he often was so absorbed in listening to a passing locomotive to ascertain if there was a loose connecting rod or leaky valve that he failed to answer comments made to him by others in the party. His interest in and devotion to the job then and since probably explains why he is now superintendent of motive power for the entire D. & H. system.

Advanced Express Rates Permitted.

The Public Service commission, second district, by order Thursday authorized the American Express company and the Canadian Express company to put into effect on one day's notice and not before September 1 new rates and charges increasing 10 per cent rates now in effect excepting rates on shipments of milk and cream and other shipments taxing the same rates.

The commission does not approve the new rates. They are subject to investigation and suspension at any time within 30 days and also subject to complaint and investigation at any other time.

The order covers express shipments within New York state and the increase is to conform to interstate rates authorized by the Interstate Commerce commission.

TRAFFIC ON STATE HIGHWAYS

Interesting Facts Shown by Recent Traffic Census Taken by State Department of Highways — Oneonta, Sidney and Colliers Lead in Number of Cars in Upper Susquehanna Valley.

Through the courtesy of A. T. Faine of this city, division engineer for the State Highway department in Otsego and Delaware counties, The Star is enabled to present to its readers an interesting table giving the number and classes of vehicles passing over the state highways at principal points in its territory. This census was taken by employees of the State Highway department on Saturday and Sunday, August 14 and 15, and is believed to give a fairly accurate idea of the extent to which the state roads in this section are being used. The points at which the census was taken were outside of corporation limits, thus avoiding the merely local traffic which might at the same points during the day be many times duplicated. It will be noted that the census was taken at 13 different points, selected with care as being most representative on the various lines of highway. Of these three are on the principal lines entering Oneonta. Inspection shows that the largest volume of traffic was on the West End and East End roads in Oneonta, at Sidney and at Colliers.

Cooperstown Plans for Big Fair.

Cooperstown is preparing for the biggest fair of its history which begins tomorrow and continues to and including Friday of this week. Everything which goes to make a county fair a success has been secured by the management, including over thirty fast trotting horses, the best in platform attractions, a balloon ascension with a triple parachute drop, finest cattle exhibit in the state outside of the State fair and a midway filled with attractions for old and young.

A speaker of national reputation will be heard each day of the fair. On September 1 George R. Flitts, Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor, will speak to the farmers on the questions of the day. His talk will not be political.

U. S. Senator William H. King of Utah will give the Democratic principles on Thursday, September 2 and U. S. Senator James W. Wadsworth will defend the Republican principles on Friday, September 3.

SEEKS TO DEPOSE UNDERWOOD

A. J. Stone, Formerly of the D. & H. Company Would Succeed Him.

A showdown of strength between President Frederick D. Underwood of the Erie and former Federal Director A. J. Stone, who aspires to the position of president is said to be imminent, according to a dispatch from Hornell. And the issue upon which the fight is based is said to be the question of regional management, such as is now in force on the Erie.

Since the roads were restored to the ownership of the stockholders, Mr. Stone has had no connection whatever with the Erie and has been spending much of his time on his farm at Dalton. He began his railroad career in the Hornell yards, having worked from car marker to federal director. During the period he was in control, however, the usually pleasant relations between Mr. Stone and Mr. Underwood became strained and when Mr. Underwood was restored to power Mr. Stone was immediately dropped.

At that time Mr. Underwood inaugurated the regional system of management, of which the regional offices in Hornell are the headquarters of the Hornell region. Now Mr. Stone declares that this system is not functioning as well as was expected and advocates a return to the old system.

Therefore, it is understood that a well founded movement is on foot to oust Mr. Underwood and put Mr. Stone in his place. Whether or not this will succeed remains to be seen.

Horse Owned by D. O. Webb Wins. In the first event at the Washington County fair at Hudson Falls on Friday, Mabel Brooks owned by D. O. Webb of this city and driven by Frank Wicker of Ticonderoga, had a merry tilt with Sweet Princess driven by Donovan, but took first money, winning the first, third and fourth heats. The best time was 2:15.24. Mabel Brooks will start at the Central New York fair at Oneonta during the week of September 20, and Mr. Webb plans to have her in fine fettle at that time.

TO BUILD NEW CHURCH

Generosity of Gilbertsville Man Will Make Notable Improvement Possible.

Gilbertsville, Aug. 29 — At a meeting of the vestry of Christ church on Wednesday evening, it was voted to build a new stone church. This has been made possible through the great generosity of one of the communicants. There will be an every-member canvass in the near future, when it is expected that the parishioners will manifest their hearty interest in the project. An architect will be secured at once, and it is hoped that the ground will be broken and foundations laid this fall, the remainder of the work to be done during the spring and summer of 1921. The site of the new church has not been chosen, but will probably be near the present property of the parish.

Asks Interlocking System at Schoharie

There was a hearing before Public Service Commissioner Frank Irvine at Albany on Thursday on the commission's recommendations for the installation of a complete interlocking signal system in the Delaware & Hudson's railroad yards at Schoharie Junction. N. R. Cass of Albany appeared for the railroad. The railroad stated that it would not oppose any formal action by the commission, but it urged that the installation would require an expenditure of approximately $50,000, the financing of which would be difficult. No decision was announced.

Success sometimes depends on small details. Tea may be a mere detail of your social function, but Bova assures success.

Milk Bar a Success.

The milk bar at the Chenango county fair made $100 from the sale of milk jugs, milk shakes and just plain milk, according to Miss Adelaide Baris, who was in charge. "After our few bills are paid," said Miss Baris, "the remainder of the money will be used to further the movement to stimulate interest in milk as a food."

MINOR MOTOR MISHAPS.

Several Accidents Reported to Police Over the Week-End.

Several auto accidents were reported to the police department over the week-end, but none of them had serious consequences or caused much damage to the cars concerned.

Albert Butts of this city reported that while he was driving his car along Chestnut street Saturday evening at about 8:15 he hit a horse and wagon, damaging the wagon slightly. The man in the wagon, who gave his name as Cole, was not injured to any extent. Mr. Butts said he was passing another auto at the time and did not observe the wagon as it carried no light.

H. C. Whitcomb's Ford delivery truck and the Ford car of Clarence Morrison of 44 Valleyview street figured in a slight mishap Saturday morning on Market street. Harry Simmons of 11 Gile avenue, driver of the grocery truck, told the police that the other car left the curb suddenly without giving him warning and he ran into the rear end of the car. Both cars were slightly damaged.

Motorman S. T. Hubbard and Conductor Charles Adair reported a collision with an auto on Chestnut street. While proceeding west with Car No. 21 an auto driven by S. E. Jones, while trying to pass between the trolley and another auto standing by the curb, "couldn't make it" and struck one of the front steps of the trolley, demolishing it. A fender of the auto was bent.

FORD AGENCY'S NEW HOME

R. J. WARREN TAKES POSSESSION OF NEW BUILDING ON MARKET STREET.

Stock Room Covers 3,000 Square Feet of Floor Space and Contains $65,000 Worth of Parts—Show Room and Service Station Finely Appointed—Designed Especially for Ford Agency.

The Ford agency in this city, the Oneonta Sales company, of which R. J. Warren is the proprietor, took possession of its new home on Saturday and while moving is not a pleasant experience, especially when one finds that there has been an accumulation of years, yet it is attended with some satisfaction and pleasure especially when the new home is new and modern throughout and equipped with all the newest devices to make it attractive and convenient. Such in fact is the new home of the Ford. It is located at the corner of Chestnut and Market streets, in close proximity to both the wholesale and retail shopping districts and handy for visitors as well as the garage men of the city.

The building, which is substantially 100 feet square is of solid brick walls and has been built with the sole idea in mind of making it adapted to the sales and service departments of the Ford agency. It is two stories in height with basement and, with entrance on three sides, it is beyond question one of the most accessible buildings as well as one most admirably adapted to the business. Doubtless without a rival in the city or in this section. It is practically fireproof and affords not only excellent offices, but a fine show room, a stockroom that compares very favorably with any to be found the country over.

In keeping with the announced policy of the company that each agency shall have not only a suitable show room but a service station equal to the best, in every large center, Mr. Warren commenced work upon the structure a year ago, the contract for the superstructure being awarded to M. D. Bennett of Sidney last September. Considering the task and the slow deliveries of material, Mr. Warren may well consider himself fortunate to be able to take possession of the building at this time.

Orlo Eggs of this city was the architect. The interior of the building to a very large extent, however, embraces the ideas of R. J. Warren, the head of the agency. The show room on the first floor facing Market street is 65 by 25 feet. The floor is of Seabright composition with steel ceilings and partitions. It has 100 lineal feet of plate glass front; looking out on Market and Chestnut streets, with opaque glass at the top, which gives excellent light during the day, with large indirect globes for artificial lighting. It has easy chairs for visitors in waiting, and is a bright attractive room. The office is elevated above the showroom, of which it is a part and on the Chestnut street side.

West of the show room is the store 24x40, where are the counters and showcases for auto accessories, tires, etc., and still farther to the west is the unloading platform and accessories stock room. At the rear of these rooms is the stock room with about 3,000 square feet of space with every nook and corner made available for parts carried in stock. There are row upon row of built in boxes for parts and the arrangement and convenience of the stock room are admirable with counters for supplying both the customer seeking parts on one side or the workshop on the other. Here Mr. Warren carries a stock valued when the inventory was last made at $65,000, so that often he receives calls from other territories seeking parts on a rush order.

The service station is at the rear with entrances both from Market street and Benton avenue with considerable outside ground space concreted for minor adjustments and repair work. Inside with concrete floor, also, the service room is 20x60 feet with all requisites for quick service.

The second floor is on the level with and reached by a concrete driveway from Chestnut street. It is devoted entirely to a machine and repair shop and it has been equipped already with over $5,000 of new machinery designed and manufactured exclusively for repair work on Ford cars and embraces a boring in machine, which does accurately in 20 minutes what a workman would require with other implements 19 hours with less certainty of accuracy, a tire press, which presses on with a 200-ton capacity the hard tires, and drills and other machines. Here also is the battery room in that department. The floor is of concrete and it is well supported.

On the Market street side near the store where accessories are sold will be installed a pyramid service apparatus for supplying from overhead, gasoline, air and water without obstructing the walk. The entire building represents a large outlay and it does credit to the most popular car that has yet been constructed as well as to the agency, which represents all that is expected in the way of service and satisfaction.

CITY BAND DELIGHTS AGAIN.

Plays Before Large Sunday Crowd—No Play at County Sanitarium.

"The best of the season" has been the common expression following band concerts this summer, but the expression perhaps was never more appropriate than on yesterday, when the City band, under the direction of James Keeton Jr., rendered a concert on the lawn of the Elks' home. On the previous Sunday rain had interfered with the musicians, but yesterday was more favorable and there was a good-sized crowd out.

The program as published in Friday's Star was carried out and reflected much credit on the ability of the band. Especially commendable was the cornet solo of F. D. Blanchard. Everybody enjoys hearing the band play and all will hope that there will be further concerts this season.

It was announced last night that the band will in the near future make a trip to the Osego County Tuberculosis sanatorium at Mt. Vision, where it will give a concert for the numerous patients there. The band will itself bear the expense of the trip and will give a free concert at the hospital. The tuberculosis sufferers unquestionably will enjoy the treat and the band is deserving of much praise for its generosity in this respect.

Ambulance Out.

The ambulance was called to the D. & H. station yesterday morning at 7 o'clock to take Trainman Leslie Richardson, of Hudson, Pa., to the Fox hospital. He had jumped from a train below Nineveh when in danger of a wreck. In doing so he bruised his ankle, and was brought to the hospital for treatment. The derailment caused little damage.

Gasoline Thieves.

Last Thursday morning E. J. Barker of North Franklin on going to the barn to milk detected a strong odor of gasoline about one of his milk cans. On further search he found that the culprits had taken as near as he could estimate 12 gallons of gas, drawing it from the tanks of his two automobiles.

WARNING TO PUBLIC.

Child Robbers Reported in Attempt Last Wednesday.

On Wednesday of last week about 4 o'clock while a farmer of South Side and his help were at work in the field near the farmhouse with two of the small children of the house in the front yard engaged in play, a big red roadster, occupied by two men and a woman drove up and stopped directly in front of the house. The woman got out of the car and went directly to the back of the house and then turned and walked back toward the car. She stopped at the place where the children were at play and picked up the younger one. The dog of the house at once made a disturbance but with no effect as the woman gave him candy quietly. She then started to walk toward the car and the other child began to scream and call for the baby. The lady again made use of the candy and quieted both of the children. Just at this point one of the farmers told the woman to put the child down. At this call she slowly responded. One of the men had opened the door of the car and the lady immediately stepped in and the three left the scene at great speed. The men of the home had by this time come to the spot and were so much excited that the car number was not given a thought, which would have been of great value.

This should be a warning to the public and should emphasize the importance of instructing the children to beware of strangers, and not to accept automobile rides unless given permission to do so. Automobile rides appeal very much to children and they are most certain to go if given a chance.

New Manager of Co-operative.

Announcement is made by the Oneonta Co-operative society, operating the Co-operative store on Broad street, that commencing this morning, Grant T. Wilber will be general manager of the business in full control of the management of the store. Mr. Wilber was formerly engaged in the grocery business for a period of five years and was later assistant manager of the store of which he now assumes the full management. He is well known as capable and he will have the best wishes of many friends for his success. He succeeds John Parish, who has, for the present, no plans to announce.

Notice to the Public.

This car has a wheel base of 130 inches and will make a turn in 33 1/2 feet. It weighs only 3,300 pounds and gets 15 miles on a gallon of gas. For demonstrations see John R. Todd, Oneonta, phone 13.

RESPECTED RESIDENT DIES.

LaVern F. Cook Expires at Noon Sunday After Long Illness.

Many friends in this city will learn with deep regret the death of LaVern F. Cook, for 34 years a well-known resident and business man of this city, who expired at noon on Sunday. He had been in failing health for about a year and a half, but his critical illness dates from a shock which he suffered four weeks ago last Thursday, from which time he failed rapidly.

The funeral services will be held Tuesday at 2 p. m. at his late home, 2 Taft avenue. Rev. Dr. Truman F. Hall of Cooperstown, a former pastor of the deceased and a warm personal friend, will officiate and burial will be in the family plot at Glenwood.

Mr. Cook was born at Garrettsville 62 years ago last January and was a son of John B. and Mary Ette (Wentworth) Cook of that village. When he was 12 years of age, the family moved to Hartwick and later to Mt. Vernon. On November 12, 1879, he was married to Miss Alice E. Rounds of Hartwick, and for seven years after their marriage they resided at Hartwick. Thirty-four years ago they moved to Oneonta, which ever since has been the family home. In early life Mr. Cook was by occupation a carpenter, but for many years he had been engaged in the furniture and picture framing business, his shop for about 12 years prior to March, 1919, being on Hamilton avenue.

The deceased was a member for about 40 years of the Methodist Episcopal church, first in Hartwick and since his removal to Oneonta of the First church of this city. He was also a charter member of Oneonta lodge, P. H. C. He was a consistent and faithful Christian, whose whole life was evidence of the sincerity of his faith. He was a good neighbor, a loving husband, a faithful friend, and he won and to the end retained the confidence and respect of all who knew him. To his wife, above named, and to his only sister, Mrs. H. M. VanBuren, of this city, heartfelt sympathy will in their bereavement be extended.

MRS. ZACCHEUS FINCH

Sister of O. M. Teed. Oneonta Grocer. Dies at Sidney Center.

Sidney Center, Aug. 29.—Mrs. Zaccheus Finch passed away early Saturday morning at her home on Depot street after an illness of about six weeks following a stroke of paralysis. Her funeral will be held Monday at 1 o'clock at the home and will be in charge of her pastor, Rev. Henry Lumb. Interment will be given in Highland cemetery.

Mrs. Finch, who before her marriage was Miss Rosette Teed, was born near Pine Glen, 69 years ago, and had always lived in this vicinity, where she had many friends. For the past ten years they have resided in this village. She was a faithful member of the Methodist Episcopal church and active in the different branches of church work. She is survived by her husband, four children: Mrs. Charles Conzable, Maynard and Lee Finch of this place, and Mrs. Hobart Dedrick of Bardsville, also three brothers: Charles Teed of Margaretville, Orrey M. Teed Oneonta grocer, and Gilbert Teed of this village.

VAST GAIN IN MEXICAN OIL

Production Up 72 Per Cent—Now Exceeds All the Rest of the World.

Mexico City.—Mexico will export during 1920 between 130,000,000 and 135,000,000 barrels of oil, more than all the rest of the world, including the United States, according to estimates made by George Blandone, Tampico oil statistician. He bases his figures upon the record breaking production of oil in this country for the first five months of 1920, when, he says, exports were 45,617,187 barrels, compared with 28,225,058 barrels in the same period of 1919.

The estimate for 1920 of 150,000,000 barrels is approximately 72 per cent greater than last year's production. Mr. Blandone says about 100,000,000 barrels will go to the United States.

Millions in Salmon.—Since the Columbia river salmon canning industry was started by pioneer fishermen in 1876 a total of $130,000,000 worth of salmon has been taken from the 90,000 acres of fishing territory in the river from Cascade locks to its mouth.—Brooklyn Eagle.

PROFITS BY EXCHANGE RATE

Converts American Cash Into Foreign Money and Buys International Reply Coupons Redeemable at Normal Exchange Rate.

Boston.—A ban has been placed on the rush of people to give their money to Charles Ponzi, head of the Securities Exchange company, on his promise to repay their investment with 50 per cent profit in 45 days.

After a conference with District Attorney Pelletier, Ponzi, whose business is described as the exchanging of international reply coupons from one country to another, agreed to accept no further deposits until an auditor selected by the district attorney has examined his accounts, which are said to run into millions.

District Attorney Pelletier said the action taken was "in no sense a final closing down of the business."

For several weeks past crowds of persons have flocked to Ponzi's offices and given in their savings in exchange for notes of the Securities Exchange company for the principal plus 50 per cent, payable in 90 days. Invariably Ponzi is said to have paid off the notes in 45 days and there has been no complaint that any person has failed to receive money when due.

Takes Advantage of Exchange Rate.—Ponzi describes his exchange system in a general way as being based on the use of international reply coupons authorized under the International postal agreement as the medium for taking advantage of the differences in rates of exchange.

With deposits received from customers, Ponzi explained, he converts American dollars into Italian lire, or other foreign money. Then, through agents located in several countries abroad, international reply coupons are purchased, redeemable at the normal and not the prevailing rate of exchange. The coupons are then transmitted by the agents from one European country to another, gathering profits through succeeding differences in rates of exchange, with assured normal payment for redemption, until the transaction is completed and the proceeds converted into American dollars. This usually takes 45 days, according to Ponzi, who says his profits have reached 400 per cent in some transactions.

U. S. Agents Can't Find Flaws.—Ponzi's operations have been under investigation by federal, state and county officials for some time without uncovering any violation of law. United States Attorney Gallagher said he was not certain yet whether the matter was one with which the federal authorities should concern themselves. The United States attorney said he was "informed by the postal authorities that the United States government is the largest user of international reply coupons in the world." "The entire issue of the past 12 months by the government, however, is only a small fraction of the entire number which must have been handled by Ponzi to account for the tremendous income which he claims to have made since December last."

FRENCH PRAISE FOR OUR RED CROSS WORK

Landing the work accomplished by American philanthropy for war-stricken France, Andre Tardieu, former high commissioner from that nation to the United States, in a recent article widely commented on throughout the French press, says: "The American Red Cross has accomplished a work which calls for the heartfelt gratitude of every true Frenchman. In 1915 this great relief organization spent in behalf of France nearly $7,000,000 francs, and in 1919 its expenditures on charitable projects in our country attained the tremendous total of 171,000,000. It has recently turned over to the French relief organizations huge stocks of supplies whose value must be counted in the hundreds of thousands of francs.

"Fifteen million American boys and girls, banded together in the Junior Red Cross of America, are back of a movement to establish the closest ties between themselves and France's younger generation through the charitable works they have financed, and are now carrying out among our little war sufferers.

"The bonds of friendship between France and America is cemented with mutual admiration, respect and gratitude."

EX-KAISER IS PLAYING "EMPEROR" AT DOORN

Surrounds Himself With Miniature Court and Keeps Close to "Cage."

The former German emperor, William, while professing a desire to lead at Doorn the quiet life of a country gentleman, has nevertheless created a little court around him—somewhat larger than that which he had at Amerongen, and Dutch newspapers have already begun calling Doorn "The Little Potsdam."

The allies' demands upon Holland to guard the former emperor closely have made it impossible for William to mingle with the Dutch country gentry who have estates about Doorn and the house where he is said to expect to spend his remaining days is just like a little bit of Germany.

Strict military order prevails outside the House of Doorn, where passersby must not be too curious. Within the discipline is Prussian. William's only associates are German. His entire staff, including approximately forty servants, are German, with one exception—the village barber, a Dutchman, is called in now and then to trim his hair or beard.

When at Amerongen, William went frequently to Doorn by automobile, but now he is seldom seen outside the wire fence of his estate, which villagers call his "forty hectare cage." Forty hectares are about 80 acres.

The few times he has been out, he has paid visits to his former host, Count Bunnick, at Amerongen. Now and then, the former crown prince or others of William's sons have been permitted to visit the exile, largely because of the illness of their mother, but from day to day William seldom sees any new faces—only his daily associates.

Egg-Laying Record.—Tacoma, Wash.—A hen at the western Washington experiment station at Pullman, Wash., has made an egg-laying record that is said to be a record. This hen laid one egg every day for 75 consecutive days. On the seventy-ninth day she laid a double egg of unusual size.

SCARS OF WAR IMPROVE SOIL

Effect of Deep Plowing Produced Upon Shell-Torn France, Says American.

VEGETATION IS LUXURIANT

Vigorous Crops Are Growing as a Result of French Patience and Industry—Stick to Antiquated Tools and Methods.

New York.—The thought of deep scars left upon the land in France and Belgium by the trenches of the allies and their foes has been one of the gloomiest of post-war reflections. To those who have feared that permanent harm to the agriculture of the war-torn areas would result, the special report made to the American Committee for Devastated France recently by Hal B. Fullerton, agricultural director of the Long Island railroad, will come as a relief. For in it Mr. Fullerton declares that the trenches and shellholes have accomplished the one thing dearest to the farmer's heart—deep plowing.

"If a farmer here in America," said Mr. Fullerton to reporters recently, "manages to plow to a depth of four inches he thinks he has done exceedingly well. For the most part, he gets down two inches. The best ever done in this country is nine. Now what has happened in France? Trenches eight to ten feet deep, shellholes and mined areas from fifty to a hundred feet in depth and often 200 feet square have brought to the surface, without disturbing it, the deep soil, containing valuable minerals of which the top soil, used for generations, has been depleted. Added to these minerals is the organic matter furnished by the fertilization of dead beasts. Thus the upheaval wrought by the trenches actually represents the type of cultivation advanced by practical agricultural experts in America and England.

"I remember one former battlefield where the trenches had been filled in and wheat planted. The lines of trenches—French on one slope and German on the other—could be clearly distinguished because the wheat growing over them was higher than the rest and had a rich green color that showed it to be the best in the field. It was a plain example of deep plowing."

Luxuriant Vegetation in Shell Holes.

Among Mr. Fullerton's many photographs was one showing a huge shell hole, perhaps a hundred feet deep, all over the bottom of which luxuriant vegetation, including clover, cornflower and alfalfa, was growing. Another snapshot showed unfilled trenches, with discarded ammunition belts and rifles strewn around, the whole place covered with grass, ferns and shrubbery.

Another theory that Mr. Fullerton has exploded is that of the great harm done to the soil by chlorine gas set free in military operations. On the contrary, he declared, if it has any effect at all it is a beneficial one, for the chlorine will attract to itself sodium and potassium as chemical bases, the result being some of the very salts that are used in the making of fertilizer.

Mr. Fullerton was full of enthusiasm over the French genius for farming. While amused by some of the antiquated tools and methods the peasants employed, such as hoes with eighteen-inch handles, forcing the user to bend his back at right angles as he works, and obsolete scythe sharpeners, he failed to find that conservatism and distrust of new things with which the Frenchman is so generally credited. He told of introducing to some of them the wheeled hoe, or automatic seeder, a device that may be used for all sorts of work, from harrowing to weed cutting.

"I took it out to a field," he said, "where some of the French were working, and started in with it. None of them came up to look—they are too many for that—but I could see them watching every motion out of the corner of their eyes. A few days later one old man decided to try it, and soon he was getting so much more done in a day than the rest that he was the talk of the town."

"The problem of restoring French soil," according to Mr. Fullerton's official report, the result of three months in the Alsace department at the request of the American committee for devastated France, "is one of engineering. With the needed tractors and implements it can easily be brought back to its original fertility. Among none of the farmers did I find the slightest pessimism about their land. I noticed also that both men and women had unusual mechanical ability. They are hard workers, as well. It is a common sight to see men who have worked in factories laboring in their kitchen gardens until 9 or 10 o'clock at night, making the most of the long twilight.

His Only Salvation.

"The French countryman is a strong individualist. It is with great difficulty that he is persuaded to co-operate in a community enterprise. The present conditions, however, make this his only salvation. With the lack of man-power and machinery it is essential that the farmers form themselves into agricultural syndicates. The American committee and the French government are both fostering this system, and the former's work, with the leasing of tractors, has met with a great deal of success.

"The inhabitants of the devastated regions are in urgent need of shelter, and next to that variety of food, eggs, milk, etc., and domestic farm animals. For the tilling of the soil, they need most a good supply of hand or small motor-driven cultivators and seed-drills, to be handled on a community basis and directed by practical agriculturists in the various localities. The use of the tractors, which has already proved of great value, should be continued."

Mr. Fullerton went to France last April accompanied by his daughter. He confined his tour to the Alsace district, living in the town of Blerancourt, where the pair occupied a house used as division headquarters by the Germans. Mr. Fullerton's main work was to establish a model demonstration farm, introduce American tools and investigate conditions.

The character of the French soil, weather conditions and articles of food in the Alsace area Mr. Fullerton has discussed at length in a separate report submitted to President Peters of the Long Island railroad, for which road, by the way, he conducts a demonstration farm at Medford, L. I.

Fine Grain Country.

"This northeastern section," the report reads, "is a superb grain country. Wheat, rye and oats are very vigorous, stalks and heads large and well-filled; apples and pears are fair; only one variety of grapes, but vigorous; lettuce, sugar beets, asparagus, Swiss chard, peas, broad beans and carrots all fine; string beans, onion and cabbage all fair; no corn grown at all; grass, such as red top, meadow grass and fescues, very vigorous, including red, white and crimson, or Swiss clover. Therefore cattle do well and much cheese is made. The farms run mainly from three to fifteen acres, cultivated often and with painstaking care. Intensive work is the rule.

"The country is much like Ohio, long, gentle rolls and many small streams which the French call rivers. The soil is of the clay loam type, very tenacious when wet and having many small lumps when ready for planting. Much lime, mostly in fossil shell form, with heavy applications of thoroughly rotted manure, tells the story.

"The rainfall was only about twenty inches but extremely well distributed, with brief, gentle showers at intervals. Dewfall and mist were continuous; there were no gales or washouts on hillsides on account of the presence of heavy rains.

"Bread is made mostly of mixed dark flour. Radishes, constantly munched in the field and at home, cheese, salads of many wild plants, chard and sugar beet tops are the main food. Chicory coffee once a day, with light, sour, red wine, diluted one-half in water. The people in the devastated area are patient, cheerful and persistent, slow moving but constantly plodding."

Writ-Server Strips Horse.

Bucyrus, O.—Sam Page, a local junk dealer, who left his wagon outside a butcher shop door, returned to find the harness gone and the horse standing complacently between the shafts. A local constable, Adolph Rinker, had served a replevin while the owner was buying meat.

TRADE MARK
Farm Tractor

The Fordson cuts the cost of preparing land almost to half of what it costs with horses. But even more important is the fact that the Fordson saves from 30 to 50 per cent of the farmer's time. And time saved—getting fields in shape to plant in the proper season; getting things done when they should be done — means money to the farmer. Besides it solves the labor problem.

As ever, the machine-way is proving more efficient, faster, easier than the old hand way. In the factory, the machine increases production, saves labor—produces more at less cost. And that is what the Fordson does on the farm. The Fordson way is the machine way of farming. Besides it solves the labor problem.

The Fordson's first cost is the lowest in the market; and the after- or operating-cost is lowest. It is a compact, easily handled tractor, backed by the greatest tractor service organization in the United States.

We are Fordson dealers. Not only do we sell Fordson tractors, but we carry a stock of Fordson parts and employ Fordson mechanics to help the farmers get the best results from the Fordson.
